HAPPY NEW YEAR

New Year, Same God!

We will open the book. Its pages words on them ourselves. The book is called "Opportunity" and its first chapter is New Year's Day.

Edith L. Pierce

One resolution I have made, and try always to keep, is this — To rise above the little things. John Burrough

May all your troubles be as short as your New Year's resolutions.

Please remember the following in your prayers:

Norma White
Andrea Shively
Evelyn Hicks
Jackie & Elizabeth Meador
Danny & Carol Kessler
Mary Carlisle
Tonda Harman's Mom

Administrative council will meet on January 8 immediately following Worship service. Discussions tabled at the November meeting: need for new front doors—type of doors. Others items: continuance of Community Suppers—keep on same day or try another day.

Kudos to the Mays Choir

During the last few months, the choir has had some challenging times: working with 3 pianist and illnesses among the members to cite a couple. Thank you to the choir members for hanging in there—the leadership you provide in the congregational singing and the great specials you sing add greatly to the worship experience.

Be courageous and strong

Joshua 1:6

Continue to pray for the Backpack program. If you have any ideas for fund-raising, please share. Thank you to all who remembered the Backpack Program at Christmas.

May God's amazing grace be upon you
In 2012.
